Baylor MOAS

Delegations of Brazil and Costa

Rica Fall 2010

November 29, 2010

Baylor MOAS in San Antonio

Baylor University's MOAS team represented Brazil and Costa Rica this year at the San Antonio conference, held from November 4-7, 2010. For the third straight year, a Baylor student served as the President of the Assembly, while one other student served as a chair of one of the other four committees. Even with a team of fifteen new members, Baylor won the highly prized Outstanding and Distinguished Delegation awards.

Baylor's 2010 Resolution Topics

Renegotiating a Free Trade Area of the Americas
Decreasing the Use of Embargos
Rehabilitation of Sex Trafficking Victims
Small Arms and Handguns Brokering System
Green Helmets Environmental Protection Initiative
Incentive Program for Corporate Social Responsibility
Monitoring Health Care for Pregnant Women in Prisons
Protection of Journalist Rights
Raising Awareness of Cyber Crimes
Improving Integration of Refugees
