Baylor MOAS at ESMOAS

From November 3-6, 2016, Baylor's Model Organization of American States (MOAS) team participated in events held at Texas State University to debate policies in the Western Hemisphere along with other universities from Texas, Louisiana, and Mexico. Speakers included OAS Assistant Secretary General Ambassador Nestor Mendez, the keynote speaker, and Ambassadors Jim Creagan and Floyd S. Cable. This model marked the twentieth anniversary of the establishment of the model and included an academic conference and mock trial competition. Baylor students represented Brazil and Chile and presented resolutions covering a wide variety of economic, security, budgetary, and social issues.

- Baylor's representatives earned a number of distinctions:
- Secretary General-Elect, 2017 ESMOAS (Parker Wooden)
  - Outstanding Position Paper Award (Brazil Delegation)
  - Distinguished Position Paper Award (Chile Delegation)
  - Distinguished Ambassador Award (Brendan Smith)
  - Outstanding Rapporteur Award (Emily Kleinburg)
